Horoscopes/Crossword Puzzle

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20
Natives of Aries should be careful to avoid mouthing off to people with whom they have a checkered history, even if that person is below them in the ranks. Natives of this sign often mistreat the little guy and get away with it; it is time to rethink your behavior. Kindness is key.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21
Natives of this sign tend to get very involved in their work, and sometimes don't bother to take the time to see who they are addressing, but at this particular time it might be advantageous to consider audience and think before you speak.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21
Because Gemini is one of the more social signs, its natives are generally some of the most likely to let their mouths get them into trouble, but at this time they are likely to feel particularly clever, and so will be particularly at risk of saying the right thing to the wrong person.

CANCER - June 22/July 22
Young Cancerians should be sure to respect their elders. Older Cancerians should also probably be careful of who is around, as even if a quip goes over the heads of the little ones, jokes made at their expense will not likely go over well with other adults.

LEO - July 23/Aug 23
Leos are advised to loosen up on their expectations of others while holding themselves to a certain standard as well. Children of this sign tend to try to put it on themselves to keep others in line while considering themselves to be above the laws they write, and neither of these actions are wise.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22
Virgoans should consider keeping the door closed at this time. Natives of this sign are not particularly social, and this week is likely to be particularly obnoxious for them, and the Virgoan who deals with this for themselves is only likely to find trouble.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23
Librans should try to keep the peace when necessary, but should also not jump in as early as they might usually like to. While some natives of other signs are likely to get on each other's nerves and cause problems, for the most part people are just having fun and blowing off steam.

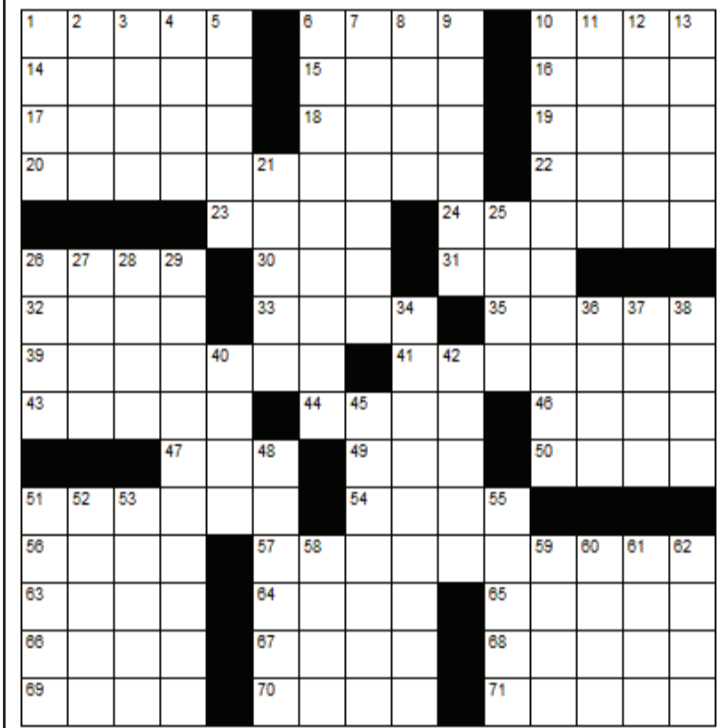

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22
Natives of Scorpio can bite back only when necessary, but try to bite their tongues until then. Natives of other signs are likely feeling rather cheeky at this time, and this should not be mistaken for an attack. If it proves to be an attack however, think first then react appropriately.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21
Sagittarians may want to spend some time alone. Sagittarians always enjoy time alone, but chances are they will find other people to be particularly obnoxious at this time, and unlike the natives of many other signs, Sagittarians are not likely to want to play that game.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20
Natives of Capricorn should follow their instincts. Natives of this sign are seldom afraid to argue for what they believe, but are also cautious enough to know what not to say and to whom.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18
This is a good time for Aquarians to find competitive conversation as long as they don't take things too seriously. Natives of this sign often enjoy argument, and are likely to find a worthy adversary, as long as they can keep themselves from getting carried away.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20
Children of Pisces should not be afraid to engage in conversation just because people are feeling snarky. Children of this sign have a good understanding of others and a firm intuition that they usually use for good.
